The three robbers, in entering the first floor apartment of Harry Sucherman, set off a burgiar alarm in the adjoining apartment of Sucherman's brother, Joseph, who called police.

The robbers were at work on a wall safe in the Sucherman flat, after lining up Sucherman's family at the point of pistols, when a police squad car stopped in front of the building.

With escape cut off in front, the robbers ran to a rear window. They saw Detective Jerry Murphy eutting off their flight. One of them fired three shots and Murphy dropped, fatally wounded.

Attempting to get out by the front door, the robbers were met by police fire. They returned the fire and Lieut Edward Conroy fell.

Convicted by Jury in Circuit
Judge Calhoun's Court.
Byron Cade, 64 years old, 5121
Lotus avenue, was found guilty of manshaughter, and fined $500 to-day in Circuit Judge Calhoun's court as driver of the service car which struck and killed John Wray, 5, Oct. 17 last, in front of 4523 Manchester avenue.

Cade admitted on the stand that he saw the boy in the street when the car passed Newstend avenue, 4400 west. He said he continued at about 30 miles an hour until fhe child, when the machine was within 10 feet of him, dashed in fron tor it. Cade said' he swerved into a light standard in trying to avoid striking the boy.

The boy, who was dead when taken to a physician's office, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wray, 1116 South Newstend avenue. The parents have removed to another State, and the State made its case on the testimony of bystanders and passengers in the service car. It was brought out that a civil settlement had been made.

Cade was fined $100 for operations.

"Two hundred planes and 250 expert pilots engaged; 25 contractors over the regular routes aggregating 14,368 miles, flying approximately 40,500 miles each 24 hours, about 60 per cent of which is flown at night."

The Postmaster-General told of the accommanying acceleration in the commercial flying business and its apparent serious results.

"The public poured its hundreds of millious of dollars into the aviation industry," he said. "Factories sprang up and air lines were inaugurated, some in accord with the best practice, others less well con-best practice, others less well considered. But the experience of all in 1929 was substantially the same. With a paying load of only 16 to 40 per cent of capacity, all closed the year with operating deficits so great the very life of the passenger transport industry today is in the belience."

He added, however, that the situation was one that properly occa-sioned the deepest public concern, and set forth his opinion as to what

ST. PETRESBURG, Fla., Jan. 14. -Decision to consider carefully a plan for effecting a gradual reduc-ition in the workingman's hours of labor, with the hope of improving the unemployment situation of the country, was reached by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor in midwinter convention here yesterday.

"We understand that many men now are working 10 or more hours a day in various lines of industry, some of which is night work," said William Green, president of the Federation, "and we do not feel that there is any necessity for any worker to be called on to work more than eight hours a day in any of the highly industrial establishments of the country."

Green said the council had decided to oppose the appointment of Ben W. Hooper, former member of the Railway Labor Board, as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the ground that when he was on the labor board he "was not friendly to labor." Hooper is a former Governor of Tennessee. The council refused an application for membership into the labor federation by various groups of insurance agents.

the views and babits of the American people with respect to private judgment as to statutes and regulations affecting their conduct. To reach conclusions of any value, we must go into deep questions of public opinion and the criminal law. We must look into the several factors in the attitude of the people, both generally and in particular localities, toward laws in general and toward specific regulations. We must note the attitude of the pioneer toward such things. We must hear in mind the Puritan's objection to administration, the Whig tradition of a "right of revolution," the conception of natural rights, classical in our policy, the democratic tradition of individual participation in sovereignty, the attitude of the business world toward local regulation of enterprise, the clash of organized interests and opinions in a diversified community, and the divergencies of attitude in different sections of the country and as between different groups in the same locality. We must not forget the many historical examples of large-scale public disregard of laws in our past. To give proper weight to these things, in connection with the social and economic effects of the prohibition law, is not a matter of a few months.

There has been great apprehension among the

Press Comment on the Coast Guard

Evidence indicates three liquor runners slain by Coast Guard got their deserts, says Washington Post; Cleveland Plain Dealer denies they were subject to capital ment; New York Herald Tribune calls Boston meeting significant popular protest; law upheld by killings, defied by drunken brawl, New Republic points out.

BEARING OUT DR. BUTLER. From the New Republic.

that disregard of one law does not neces-sarily imply disrepect for all law, he need look no further than recent events in New London. There, members of the Coast Guard, after sternly upholding the majesty three rum runners who refused to stop when ardered to do so, proceeded to show their contempt of prohibition in particular by getting drunk and engaging in a brawl with sailors at a shore party—having im-with sailors at a shore party—having imbibed, it is reported, the very liquor which they captured from those who had paid with their lives for law violation.

It causes us neither surprise nor indignation to learn that Coast Guard members drink; in so doing they are following a social usuge having the equivalent of legal sanction. But the incident is the very symbol of the absurdity which appears when a Government tries to compai obedience to a law to which great masses of the people do not accord moral sanction.

DEGREES OF CRIME. From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Prom the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Const Guards my abundant warning was given; surviving members of the rum running gang say there was no warning at all. The point is immaterial. The killers will, in all probability, be indicted by the State courts of Connecticut or hissanchusetts. Then they will, by special ukase, he remeved for trial to the Federal courts and speedily acquitted. The men who were tilled were propably had eggs. But they were not subject to capital punishment by Federal or State law.

If the killing of the rum runners was a matter of no importance the sequet to the killing is something very dreadful! For a bunch of the quick-trigger Coast Guards appropriated a generous amount of the confincated boose for their own Tuistide cheer. They then indulged in a cheerfully bloody fight among themselves counting in emergency hospital treatment. Now this is rectous attain Everyone connected with prohibition promises that there will be speedy and severe purchahment. We do not doubt that the promise will be furfilled.

Yet we are somewhat pursued by the new appraisement of crime in this matter of the enforcement. Homicide, no matter whether the victim is guilty or guiltiess under the Volstend act, is almost no crime at all; while the stenling of a few bottless of superfusion boose by hard-working and apple shooting Coast Guards is incomparably more serious and reprehensible.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE.

ference, after all. Neither Fighting Bob nor Dewey had to put 24 of his own men nor Dewey had to put 24 of his own mea under arrest Saturday, and four more Sun-day, for co-operating with the enemy. The men commanded by Evans and Dewey were never charged with wantonly firing on citi-zens of their own country, and as for using their position in the service to line their own pockets, such an action was beyond their wildest dreams.

KILLING SMUGGLERS. From the Washington Post.

THE Coast Guard is charged with the duty of preventing smuggling. If the speedboat fired upon had been suspected of smuggling silk, narcotics, allens, diamonds or anything else it would have been subject to search just the same.

For 104 years the law has provided that boats shall stop when hailed by a revenue boat, and that the law officers may fire upon those who retuse to hait.

If the Coast Gland boat without warnupon those who refuse to hait.

If the Coast Guard boat, without warning, fired upon men who were ignorant of the command to halt, the fact will be accertained and the officers and crew will be subject to punishment. But the circumstances strongly indicate that the rum runners got only what was coming to them.

The pursuit of rum runners through crowded city streets accompanied by wild firing that may kill innocent individuals is an infoierable offense against society. The public is entitled to safety first and always. But when smurglers are on open water, where innocent fives are not at stake, it is not only the duty of the authorities to pursue and search them, but so kill them if there is no other mans of overbauling them.

From the Dailne News.

The Black Duck seems unquestionably to have been engaged in figure sampging. Nobody alleges that the bost stopped when ordered so to do in practically every detail the position of the Black Duck was substantially that of a miscreant on land who resists arrest, except that the law of the sea to a litric more severe than that of the find, and that resistance of arrest by flight is sufficient provocation for a revenue cutter or speed boost to open fire.

While the Browns finished four in the 1929 American League race they and the champion Athletic were tied for first place in defensive play. The clubs led by Dan Howley and Connie Mack finished the campaign with fielding person tages of .915. It would seem as though the Browns really rated first as they played three more games than the Athletics and handled 297 more chances. Also, they completed 31 more double-plays than did the A's and had one triple-play, one more than the champions could show. The Yankees, with a mark of .971, were next best on the defense, the White Sox following a point behind.

Finds REM brings quick relief

Mr. F. J. Anderson of 987 Raymond Ave., St. Paul, Minn., is proprietor of a butcher shop. In his work he must undergo many sudden changes of temperature—for each trip into the ice box is like venturing into the Arctic regions. That was the way he caught a bad cold not long ago that kept him coughing "day and night." A salesman from his wholesale meat house heard him coughing and told him he ought to try REM. He did—got a bottle at Harm's Pharmacy, Raymond and Hampden—and soon his cough was a

Senator Jones (Rep.), Washing-ton, a dry leader, was satisfied with the report and anxious to carry it bearing out all of his contention.

And he, too, promised support for the legislation program.
Senator Hawes (Dem.), Missouri, a wet, said that the President's recommendations in regard to prohibition "considered as a whole are good." He favored transfer of prohibition enforcement from the day at several points along the Wabash and White rivers and their tributaries. About 1800 acres were flooded late yesterday by the break of a levee at Clinton 20 miles north of Terre Haute. More than a dozen State high-

The perfected loaf

This is what we mean by the perfected loaf

WHEN we announced to you last week that Tip-Top W Bread has been so highly developed by our master bakers that it has been called "the perfected loaf", we did not give you the details of this perfection. By perfected we mean a loaf that, in every important feature, is all that bread can be—a loaf faultlessly good in all respects.

Crust: Tip-Top has a rich golden brown crust.
Never too pale, never too brown, and always uniform in Texture: Tip-Top has a tender yet well-knit texture that makes it butter easily, even when at its very freshest. It is finer grained and slices perfectly. Taste: Tip-Top tastes like bread bread at its very finest. Flavorful, but not

The tea is not with an old friend, though I ve many I d like to see. Probably it is with a new playwright who has a sorgeous ides in a manuscript that needs more work before it is ready for playing. We put our wits together to figure out what can be done to heighten one scene and what more to make a character truer. We have a session that we designate as "tea," in which tea plays a small part and brain-wracking argument the largest part. If we accomplish something we emerge tired but happy and triumphant.

Suddenly I realize that I have forgotten the time and that I must rush home because the hairdresser is due at 5:50. No actress may go one the stage without a caiffure as nearly perfect as she can have it. We must always look our best. If we are tired or ill or worried we must not show it, either on the stage or to those of the general public that we meet off the stage. Consequently, I decide upon a hair hour's rest before dinner.
